Community Action Partnership seeks applicants for a seat on CAP commission

Community Action Partnership of Riverside County is seeking applicants for a position on its Commission that will serve as the “low-income” representative for District 2, which stretches from Highgrove to Corona. The low-income representative will be chosen by election of voters in District 2 on February 27, 2019.

Those interested for the position must submit their application by 5:00 p.m. February 22, 2019

Those interested in the low-income seat must live in District 2 and should be members of the low-income community (candidates need not themselves be low-income, however, preference in selection shall be given to low income individuals). District 2 includes Corona, Norco, Jurupa Valley, Eastvale, Highgrove, Home Gardens, El Cerrito, Coronita, Green River and the Riverside communities of La Sierra and Arlanza north of Arlington Avenue, Magnolia Center, Wood Streets, Downtown and North Side.

Applicants cannot be a member or family member of the Community Action Partnership Riverside staff, the Community Action Commission or the Riverside County Board of Supervisors.

For additional information, or to receive an application, call Patricia Sanchez at (951) 955-3217 or Tamara Martin at (951) 955-3893. The application is also available in English and Spanish at www.capriverside.org Completed applications can be mailed or dropped off at the Community Action Partnership Riverside office, 2038 Iowa Ave., Suite B-102, Riverside, Ca., 92507.

Community Action Commission meets on the third Thursday of every month (no meetings in August and December). Representatives/Commissioners are volunteers who are dedicated to the mission of community action and are willing to participate on various committees and Commission activities to serve low-income people. Community Action Partnership is part of Riverside University Health System-Public Health.
